

COCA-COLA WAREHOUSE
117 S. WEST STREET
RALEIGH, NC 27601

Built in 1956, originally known as the Coca-Cola warehouse

The building's 1996 renovation became the spark for the revitalization of downtown Raleigh

Great location, only blocks from Fayetteville Street, downtown Raleigh's Main Street, and the future Raleigh Convention Center

Six blocks from the State Capitol and four blocks from Glenwood South, a thriving retail and restaurant environment and home to new condominiums

- High ceilings
- Kitchen and bar
- Roll-up doors
- Open floor plan
- One of the few remaining buildings in downtown Raleigh with an open-truss, spanning 100 feet in both directions with no columns to support it
- 11,000 sq ft
